Arunachal Pradesh

Arunachal Pradesh, known as the "Land of Dawn-lit Mountains," is a northeastern Indian state characterized by its rugged terrain, diverse flora and fauna, and unique tribal cultures. Located at the foothills of the Himalayas, it shares international borders with Bhutan, China, and Myanmar, and is known for its breathtaking landscapes and rich biodiversity

Tour Plan

Day 1 : Bhalukpong: Arrival

â€¢ Local sightseeing â€¢ Brahmaputra River Begin the first day of your tour by sighting the mighty river the Brahmaputra Upon arrival at the airport/railway station, you would be greeted and transferred to your hotel in Bhalukpong. After checking into the hotel, you can freshen up and relax to get over the travel fatigue. The first day of your Arunachal Pradesh travel then takes you to the connecting force that binds North-East to the rest of India- the Kolia Bhomora Bridge. The Bhomora Bridge situated above the mighty Brahmaputra River has been a major contributor to North-Eastâ€™s development in terms of its connectivity to other parts of the country. This robust mass structure is not just known for its strength but also its beauty which gets illuminated in the red dusky sky (however, photography is not allowed there). Later, the day ends with a comfy stay at the hotel. Distance from Guwahati to Bhalukpong: 235 km Time taken from Guwahati to Bhalukpong: 5.5 to 6 Hrs

Day 2 : Dirang: Transfer and Sightseeing

â€¢ Sightseeing â€¢ Orchidarium A day full of gorgeous sceneries awaits you Kickstart your day with an appetizing meal at the hotel, as now you would be heading towards Dirang. The first place that you would be visiting as part of the second day of Arunachal Pradesh holiday package is Tipi. Tipi is an Orchidarium located on the banks of river Bharavali, which houses over 7500 orchids. This orchidarium surely mesmerizes each one who takes a look at the finest species of orchids on display. After your visit to Tipi, you would be passing by some breathtaking natural landscapes and waterfall, so do keep your camera handy as you canâ€™t afford to miss a shot. Upon arrival in Dirang, you would be checking into the hotel, where a piping hot meal awaits you. Later on, you can freshen up for excursions in later part of the day. This tour then takes you to Apple Nursery, Kiwi Farm, Dzong Fortress which are rare architectural compositions found mainly in Bhutan, and Dirang â€™s renowned hot water spring. When you are done for the day, you would be transferred back to the hotel for a restful overnight stay. Distance from Bhalukpong to Dirang: 139 km Time taken from Bhalukpong to Dirang: 5 hours

Day 3 : From Valleys to Peaks: The Drive from Dirang to Tawang

â€¢ War Cemetery â€¢ War memorial and show Relive the era of the 1960s on the third day of your tour The third day of your Arunachal Pradesh travel begins with a scrumptious meal at the hotel. Later on, you would be visiting some places while on the way to Tawang. The places that you would be visiting include War Cemetery, which is a stupa like structure built in memory of the soldiers of the Indian Army who sacrificed their lives in the Indo-Sino War, and Sella Pass, which is a beautiful mountain pass of religious significance to the Tibetan Buddhists, here one can also indulge in Ice skating in winters. Later on, you would be visiting Paradise Lake, Jang Waterfalls, which are a scenic natural charm named after a heroic tale of the 1962 war, and Jaswant Garh which is a memorial built to commemorate the bravery of late Jaswant Singh Rawat. As you are done for the day, you would be transferred to the hotel at Tawang for the overnight stay. Distance from Dirang to Tawang: 128 km
